

STORE CATTLE REPORT

Thursday 14th November 2024

Store Cattle – 97

Autumn stores meet another blistering trade as numbers nationally tighten.

Steers – 59

The entry of 59 steers peaked at £1540, with many well-bred continentals selling from 300-325ppk. Strongest steers were the order of the day with Charolais X's from Hillend Court Partnership peaking at 325ppk. Native bred yearlings from Messrs. F I Bevan sold from £1400-£1540 per head. The entire consignment of steers averaged 280ppk or £1260 per head.

Heifers – 38

A nice little entry of heifers sought strong demand especially for the stronger sorts of heifers to feed. The entry peaked at 329ppk for a run of continental X heifers from Messrs. Probert. Any continental heifers big or small soared straight up to 300ppk plus. Strong heifers sold from £1400-£1585. The whole consignment of heifers averaged an astonishing 301ppk or £1241.

More cattle could easily have been sold to this blistering trade, with plenty of buyers hungry for more!

More cattle are required to meet demand from buyers.

Next sale – Thursday 28th November – sale at 11:15
